NDCF ELECTS NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Bismarck, ND—The North Dakota Community Foundation (NDCF) is pleased to announce the election of Jason Anderson of West Fargo, North Dakota, to a three-year term on the NDCF Board.

Anderson has been the Vice President of Human Resources and Administration at Titan Machinery since 2008 and has a Professional in Human Resources Certification (PHR) from the Society of Human Resources Management. He has a degree in Economics from Concordia College in Moorhead, MN, and previously served on the board for the local Habitat for Humanity chapter.

Re-elected to serve a second three-year term on the board were Lance Guleson of Lisbon, Scott Meschke of Dickinson, Art Rosenberg of Fargo, and Gayle Seibel of Wishek.

Elected to serve one-year terms as Officers of the NDCF Board:

- Chair: CJ Hager, Financial Advisor, Jamestown
- Vice Chair: Dean Anagnost, Professional Engineer, retired, Bismarck
- Secretary/Treasurer: Scott Meschke, President of Kirkwood Bank & Trust, Dickinson

Joining the Officers on the Executive Committee:

- Julie Graney, Financial Advisor, Beulah
- Leslie Biebier, Superintendent, Alexander Public Schools

The North Dakota Community Foundation Board of Directors is made up of 15 volunteers from across the state. They receive no financial compensation for their service on the Board. They are elected from the population of North Dakota and are selected to represent a broad cross-section of North Dakotans. They can serve two three-year terms and then must leave the Board.

The North Dakota Community Foundation is a public, non-profit tax-exempt corporation which receives and distributes charitable funds to support a wide range of programs that improve the quality of life for North Dakotans. NDCF currently manages more than 1,000 charitable funds for various North Dakota communities and donors, including 72 community endowment funds and over 200 scholarship funds. It has almost $190 million in assets and has made more than $134 million in grants all across North Dakota.
