NDCF ELECTS NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Bismarck, ND—The North Dakota Community Foundation (NDCF) is pleased to announce the election of Chantel Southam of Mohall to a three-year term on the NDCF Board.

Southam is a CPA/Public Accountant in Mohall. She has served on and taken leadership positions in many local organizations including Mohall Business Promotions (now the Chamber of Commerce), the Mohall Area Community Foundation, St. James Catholic Mothers, St. James Catholic Church and the local school board.

Elected to serve one-year terms as Officers of the NDCF Board:

- Chair: Mike Killoran, retired CFO and Senior Lending Officer of First State Bank of ND, Casselton
- Vice Chair: Vicki Kunz, Insurance Risk Manager at MDU Resources Group, Inc. in Bismarck
- Secretary/Treasurer: Tim Ottmar, attorney and partner at Ottmar & Ottmar PC, Jamestown

Joining the Officers on the Executive Committee:

- Justin Forde, Director of Public Affairs for Midco, Argusville
- Chris Griffin, Red River Land Company, Grand Forks

The North Dakota Community Foundation Board of Directors is made up of 15 volunteers from across the state. They receive no financial compensation for their service on the Board. They are elected from the population of North Dakota and are selected to represent a broad cross-section of North Dakotans. They can serve two three-year terms and then must leave the Board.

The North Dakota Community Foundation is a public, non-profit tax-exempt corporation which receives and distributes charitable funds to support a wide range of programs that improve the quality of life for North Dakotans. NDCF currently manages over 700 funds for various North Dakota communities and donors, including 65 community foundations and over 150 scholarship funds. It holds assets in excess of $83 million and to date has made more than $72 million in grants all across North Dakota.
